

What happens if I choose to.....	Cause low-level disruption	Deliberate or continuing disruption	Deliberately hurt others	Continually deliberately hurt others (More than 2 times over a 2 week period)	Use behaviour that will constitute a serious criminal offence as an adult
Examples of this might be.....	Not following an instruction given by an adult, unkind remarks, teasing, being cheeky etc.	Spitting at others, Swearing or rude gestures to others. Arguing with an adult, refusal to follow instructions, dangerous play etc.	Violence towards others, Serious name calling, fighting, kicking, hitting, slapping, etc. Violence is defined as 'behaviour involving physical force intended to hurt someone'	Repeated Violence towards others, Serious name calling, Fighting, kicking, hitting, slapping etc. + Racism, Stealing, Bullying incl. Cyberbullying, Vandalism etc.	Deliberate injury requiring external medical assistance, Arson, Substance abuse, theft involving external agencies, serious damage to property.
What might this look like?...
You will be asked to make better choices	Adult will talk to you and remind you about good choices 	Time out to think Move seats or time on the wall 	Sent to hall or different class. Complete Think Sheet. Miss a day's play. Class teacher informed. 	SLT and parents telephoned 	Mrs Oakes and parents in to school
If I still make poor choices

How can I make things better?	Say 'sorry'	Work nicely together	Respect each other	Have fun safely	Listen to the adults
What might this look like?

